

The importance of future-proofing your warehousing contracts

ELIZABETH SELBY, PARTNER, BEXLEY BEAUMONT

BEXLEY BEAUMONT

An award-winning boutique law firm of exceptional quality and talent where clients' and lawyers' interests are aligned by collaboration and innovation

What happens when you don't future proof your contracts?

- Time and resource wastage
- Project delays
- Spiralling costs
- Deterioration of contractual relationships

How can you future proof your warehousing contracts?

- Focus on the schedules
- Early legal involvement
- Change Control
- Incentivisation and gainshare
- Governance

Top 5 Take-Aways:

- Involve your legal team at the earliest opportunity.
- Invest time and focus on getting your schedules right.
- A dynamic Change Control Schedule is absolutely key.
- Effective gainshare incentivises innovation.
- Don't underestimate the importance of strong governance.

Elizabeth Selby

elizabethselby@bexleybeaumont.com

07913 343481

www.bexleybeaumont.com

BEXLEY BEAUMONT

An award-winning boutique law firm of exceptional quality and talent where clients' and lawyers' interests are aligned by collaboration and innovation

Bexley Beaumont Limited is a limited company and is registered in England and Wales with company registration number 12216664. Bexley Beaumont Limited is authorised and regulated by the Solicitors Regulation Authority (ID:664870). A list of its directors is open for inspection at its registered office: Centurion House, 129 Deansgate, Manchester M3 3WR. Any reference to a "partner" or "associate" means a director, partner, consultant or employee with equivalent standing and qualifications in Bexley Beaumont Limited.